NEWS RELEASE – “SUPERINTENDENT HOLDS CEO BRIEFING ON EMPLOYEE RECOGNITION”

Collier County Public Schools Superintendent, Dr. Kamela Patton, held the first of four CEO Briefings for this school year on Thursday, December 6th at the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Administrative Center. This first meeting was focused on the topic of employee recognition. Nearly a dozen community leaders, experts in this area, joined Dr. Patton as they discussed the district’s employee appreciation program, and shared successful strategies and best practices.

Three additional CEO Briefings will cover the topics of community engagement, customer service, and succession management.
