NEWS RELEASE – “SUPERINTENDENT HOLDS CEO BRIEFING ON COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT”

Collier County Public Schools Superintendent, Dr. Kamela Patton, held the second of four CEO Briefings for this school year on Thursday, December 13th at the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Administrative Center. The topic for this meeting was Community Engagement and over a dozen community leaders joined Dr. Patton as they discussed the district’s role in the community and ways to increase community engagement in the schools.

The final two CEO Briefings will cover the topics of customer service, and succession management.
