

MEDIA CONTACT: CCPS Communications and Community Engagement
239.377.0180 | communications@collierschools.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: June 10, 2015

SUPERINTENDENT HOLDS CEO BRIEFING ON WELLNESS

Collier County Public Schools Superintendent, Dr. Kamela Patton, held a fifth CEO Briefing for the 2014-2015 school year on Wednesday, June 3rd at the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Administrative Center. The topic for this meeting was wellness, which is a priority of the school district. Fourteen local leaders joined Dr. Patton in a discussion of successful programs and initiatives in an effort to identify strategies to improve student and staff wellness.

Collier County Public Schools CEO Briefing on Wellness

(Back Row L to R) Kathy Jardone – Chief Operating Officer, Community Health Partners; Karen Eastman – Wellness Programs Manager, Collier County Government; Deborah Chesna – Healthy Communities Planning Consultant, Florida Department of Health; Dr. Kevin Collins – Director of Health Services, Florida Gulf Coast University; Stephanie Vick – Collier County Administrator, Florida Department of Health; Alice Weger – Risk Management Coordinator, Collier County Sheriff's Office; Mitch Norgart – President, Gulf Coast Runners

(Front Row L to R) MaryAnn Kelly McDonald – Community Member; Dr. Allen Weiss – Chief Executive Officer, NCH Healthcare System; Darlyn Estes – Human Resources Director, Collier County Sheriff's Office; Deb Millsap – Blue Zone Director, NCH Healthcare System; Suzane Fundingsland – Family Nutrition Program, University of Florida Extension Office; Dr. Kamela Patton – Superintendent, Collier County Public Schools; Monica Dubroja – Wellness Coordinator, Arthrex; Lisa Brown – Director of Employee Health and Wellness, NCH Healthcare System

###