

The Mental Health Parity Act of 2008

The Mental Health Parity Act is legislation signed into federal law on September 26, 1996 that requires that annual or lifetime dollar limits on mental health benefits be no lower than any such dollar limits for medical and surgical benefits offered by a group health plan or health insurance issuer offering coverage in connection with a group health plan.