Textbook: Houghton Mifflin Harcourt - Florida Into Reading

PageNumber: Page vii Intro welcome to HMH into Reading - Teachers guide grade 1,vol 1

ObjectionBased: Bias

Objection: "Culturally Responsive Teaching" is Critical Race Theory and "helps them feel included, validated, valued, and safe." - SEL vs. academic focus To be clear on what Critical Race theory is, here are recent quotes from Hillsdale's Imprimis:

“Critical race theory is fast becoming America’s new institutional orthodoxy? built on the intellectual framework of identity-based Marxism. There are a series of euphemisms deployed by its supporters to describe critical race theory, including “equity,” “social justice,” “diversity and inclusion,” and “culturally responsive teaching.” Critical race theorists, masters of language construction, realize that “neo-Marxism?” would be a hard sell. Equity, on the other hand, sounds non-threatening and is easily confused with the American principle of equality?. It has been injected into government agencies, public school systems, teacher training programs, and corporate human resources departments in the form of diversity training programs, human resources modules, public policy frameworks, and school curricula.?”
