INSTRUCTIONAL UPDATES:

Mathematics instructional focus and resources

DISCUSSION	Mr. McAndrews discussed the initiatives being put into practice to address the lower 25% of the students in mathematics and to maintain the current achievement for others in the program. The math department met with Admin Department Leader Amy Lovett and encouraged a collaborative approach within each department to address specific concepts using new tools. Reveal Math, Alex Math and a more concerted review for incoming middle school students to the high school math classes will take place. Review is taking place to maintain the achievement levels for over 100 of our BCHS AP Calculus students.

BUDGET REQUESTS:

Saturday School funding request.

DISCUSSION	The SAC Committee approved the proposed payment schedule and parameters for Saturday School funding. The proposal is attached to these minutes. Estimated 14 classes at $43.30 per class date. The teacher currently positioned for this responsibility is Charles Shanks.
DISCUSSION	Additional discussion about budget raised the topic of student planners. Due to less use, and overall all expense, only freshmen are issued planners. Discussion reviewed the possibility of partnering with feeder middle schools to obtain 1/2 page size planners for issuing to those needed them as part of EP's or for purchase. Canvas, the new grading platform, does have some schedule page options, and other links will be reviewed for best use and executive functioning needs.
