Florida KidCare

Low-Cost or Free Health Coverage for Children!

Your child may qualify for comprehensive health coverage through Florida KidCare, even if one or both parents work. Getting health coverage for your children before they become sick is very important. Children need regular check-ups so they can grow strong and healthy. Healthy children do better at school and play.

What is Florida KidCare?

It's comprehensive health insurance for children under age 19 who are uninsured. Qualifying for Florida KidCare is based on income and family size. Many non-citizen children may qualify. Florida KidCare includes the following:

- MediKids: Covers children ages 1 through 4
- Healthy Kids: Covers children ages 5 through 18
- Children's Medical Services Network: Covers children birth through age 18 with ongoing medical needs, special health care or emotional needs.
- Medicaid for children: Covers children birth through 18
