

ELA

Summer Choice Board

Rising 5th Graders: During the summer complete each activity in the box. You may print this out and write a check in the box once you have finished the activity. The goal is to complete the entire choice board before summer is over.

 Read a chapter book. Then write a review of the book sharing if you recommend it and why.	Read any story of your choosing. Then, write to explain your opinion about the character's actions. Do you agree or disagree? Include evidence from the text.	 Log into iReady through Canvas. Complete 30 minutes during the week.
Read a book you borrowed from the library or SORA with a sibling, parent, or other family member.	Read an informational book or article and create a magazine cover that shows the central idea and key details.	 Log into iReady through Canvas. Complete 30 minutes during the week.
Read a literature story of your choice. Create a Wanted Poster with the character's name. Add an illustration and fill in the poster to show the character's feelings, motivations, and actions.	 Make a fort and read a book of your choice with a flashlight.	 Log into iReady through Canvas. Complete 30 minutes during the week.
Read any story of your choosing. Think about how the story could have ended differently. Write a different ending to the story. Share it with at least one person.	Write a letter to a friend about a book that you read.	 Log into iReady through Canvas. Complete 30 minutes during the week.
 Write a poem about a topic of your choice.	Write a poem about a topic of your choice. Read a fairytale. Use an empty soda bottle to illustrate details that contribute to the theme of the fairytale. Have a family member guess the theme of the text.	 Log into iReady through Canvas. Complete 30 minutes during the week.