

Social Studies * * * * * Summer Choice Board

During the summer complete each activity in the box. You may print this out and write a check in the box once you have finished the activity. The goal is to complete the entire choice board before summer is over.

<h2>Rising 3rd Graders</h2>	<h3>The White House</h3> Video: The White House for Kids Who lives in the White House? How did the White House get its name? How many rooms are in the White House? If you could redesign the White House, what would you change? Draw your version of an updated White House.	<h3>Primary Sources</h3> Photographs are primary sources. We can learn about how people lived and how they dressed in the past. Look at your own photos and family photos. What story do your family photos tell?
<h3>Florida's Flag</h3> Go to: Florida Department of State Take a few moments to study Florida's state flag. What is in the center of the flag? How do the images in the flag represent Florida? You can also learn about other symbols that represent Florida at this site.	<h3>Independence Day</h3> Patriotic Music: Stars and Stripes Forever Infographic: Independence Day Why are you proud to live in the United States? What freedoms do we have in the United States?	<h3>Primary Sources</h3> Artifacts are objects that were made or used by people from the past. Artifacts can tell us how people lived at a point in time. What games and toys do you play with? What will your toys or games tell people about you in the future?
<h3>Characteristics of Being a Good Citizen</h3> Draw an image of yourself. List words around your image that describe how you are a good citizen. 	<h3>Independence Day</h3> Video: Fourth of July for Kids Video: Independence Day Sing Along: Star Spangled Banner What do we celebrate on the 4th of July? How do we celebrate on the 4th of July?	<h3>Map Skills</h3> Video: What is a Key? Video: What is a Compass Rose? Use the map below as an example. Draw a map including a key and compass rose. With a friend, give directions to locate items on the map.
<h3>Characteristics of Being a Good Citizen</h3> Read Aloud: Being a Good Citizen What do good citizens do? How are you a good citizen at home? How are you a good citizen in the community?	<h3>Independence Day</h3> Video: Fourth of July for Kids Video: Independence Day Sing Along: Star Spangled Banner What do we celebrate on the 4th of July? How do we celebrate on the 4th of July?	